Data Flow Diagrams:

A Data Flow Diagram (DFD) represents how data moves through the system and how it is processed to generate insights. In this project, housing data is collected, processed, analyzed, and visualized through an interactive dashboard.

Example: (Simplified)

. User accesses the web application built using Flask.

. The application loads the housing dataset containing price, bedrooms, bathrooms, floors, renovation details, and house age.

. The dataset is processed and transformed for analysis.

. Tableau dashboards are embedded into the web interface.

. The processed data is visualized through interactive charts and dashboards. Users can explore insights related to housing price trends, renovation impact.

Example: DFD Level 0 (Industry Standard)
